Beyond the Top Flight

While Super League, Women's Super League, Division One and Division Two clubs enjoy the lion's share of the profile of elite New South Wales Soccer Federation competition, dozens of ambitious clubs have this coveted position in mind in the not-too-distant future.

A PERFECT EXAMPLE IS PARRAMATTA CITY Soccer Club (www.parracitysoccer.com). Based in the industrial settings of Eric Primrose Reserve, Parramatta City has recruited former USA international and Greek first division player, Andy Papoulias, as head coach for the 2000 Division 3 season. With the short-term goal of winning promotion to Division 2, Parramatta City made wholesale changes to a squad that finished the 1999 campaign with only five wins from 22 games. City captain, John Tsatsimas, a twelve-season veteran with the club, spoke to Super Soccer about the restructuring of the club.

"The Committee spent numerous hours discussing platforms for success and a decision was made to promote Under-21 players, who had romped to success in the Granville Association in 1999, to Federation first-grade in 2000. After seven rounds this season, we are unbeaten and boast a squad with an average age in the early 20s. There' s a feeling in the Club very similar to the one that existed in the late 1980s and early 1990s when Parramatta City won everything that was on offer. The spirit in this season's team is amazing and hopefully good times will return to Parramatta City."

And what of City's coup in recruiting Andy Papoulias to pass on his experience?

"The club has a fine tradition in attracting high profile coaches. For example John Doyle (ex-Socceroo), Michael Johnston (former coach of Wollongong Wolves and player with Newcastle United), Peter Papanikitas (Sydney Olympic youth coach), and Danny Abboud (Fairfield Bulls U21 coach) are all previous Parramatta City coaches," said John.

Another club with an equally impressive record in 2000 is Prairiewood United (http://www.astroatlas.com/prairiewoodunited/). United's top-of-the-table ranking after seven games is a result of the great bond between the players.

"The same core group of players have been with Prairiewood for five seasons, two in the Southern Districts Association, and three in Federation competition," said Club President, Frank Barbaro.

"The boys have lived through thick and thin and are good mates. This fact, together with the November start of the pre-season, is the reason why we are on top at the moment."

In Division 4, Kellyville Kolts lead a host of clubs eyeing a spot in the 2001 Division 3 season. Kellyville President, Richard O'Brien, spoke to Super Soccer after the first-grade's bruising 4-0 win against Granville Greenisland in Round 7.

"The club was dominating the local Granville Association competition for 7-8 years and we collectively decided to play at the highest level we could, that is, State League. So in 2000, with a squad that has been together for three or four years, we are realising our strategy of playing competitive footy.

"Make no mistake, we have some quality in our playing and coaching ranks. For example, our head and assistant coaches, Rob De Ceglie and Vic Masi were NSL players in the 1980s for Apia Leichhardt, brothers Mark and David Goldsmith are ex-Hills United midfielders, and Daniel Ashford was recruited from Marconi."

Richard said that the club is also attracting a lot of young players from the local Granville area because they can see a chance of playing first-grade at Kellyville Park.

The pacesetters in Division 5 is Petersham and again point to several major reasons for their early season success.

The Parramatta City squad

"We have a very young side," coach Manuel Camara explains.

"The average age would be about 22 but we do have some quality players who have experienced high levels of football. For example, Justin McCleay is an Australian Indoor Representative and a former Super League player with Sutherland while Larry Mullen is a former Rockdale City Super League player. Together with recruits from Dulwich Hill, Fraser Park, and the local community, Petersham will aim for promotion to Division Four in our first year of Federation competition. We also want to establish strong foundations for the future and a junior team in years to come."

You can check the progress of your local team beyond Super League and Divisions One and Two, by heading towards http://www.soccernsw.com.au/leaguesresults.html and clicking on the relevant State League division. Or find the results and up-to-date tables each week in Super Soccer.

A Reader s Story

Camden Tigers

Take a drive out past the south-western outskirts of Sydney and you'll soon come to the historic and tranquil township of Camden...

THE PEACEFUL GREEN SURROUNDS MAY soothe the senses but at the Ron Dine Reserve, home of Third Division Camden Tigers, there can be found a real den of activity, ambition, and progress.

I visited Camden on Sunday, 9 April for the visit of Liverpool City, a fixture comfortably won by the home side to the tune of 8-0, thanks to a remarkable seven goal haul by Tigers striker Greg King. After a slow start to the season, punctuated by wash-outs, the Tigers are now mid-table and set to pounce on the upper half of the Division.

Founded in 1961 as Camden, the club had a brief stint in Federation in the mid-1970s, but it wasn't until 1982 that the club started making its impression felt. Entering the old Inter-Urban League, a series of Divisions below NSW One and two, under the name of Macarthur United, the club progressed rapidly to a peak in 1984 when they finished runners-up in the Inter-Urban Second Division. Further glory that season came when they defeated Chelsea 4-2 in the Grand Final.

This astonishing climb through three divisions of Inter-Urban League must be attributed to some handy coaches and players that Camden was able to acquire. Popular ex-Socceroo Ray Richards was one key player as well as Gerry Doran, ex-Crystal Palace and Marconi stalwart, not to mention Ziggy Spilarawicz who spent time at the legendary Sydney City in their glory days.

Unfortunately, players eventually retire or move on and at the pinnacle of their success, the club was rocked by an irreplaceable loss of personnel and the decision was made to drop back into the local leagues. It wasn't until a decade later that under their present name, the Tigers were admitted back to Federation and after sweeping all before them in 1997 to finish as Fifth Division Premiers and Minor Premiers, the club was upgraded to their present position in Third Division.

Finishing fifth in Third Division last year may have been a tame year by Tiger standards but a milestone was achieved when they entered teams in the Second Division of the Youth League. In fact, on the weekend I visited Camden, the Tigers were celebrating a clean sweep of victories for all four youth teams as well as the two seniors.

Plans for the future are encouraging and Fred Mackechnie, Co-ordinator of State/Youth sides at Camden is confident that inside the next twelve months, a small grandstand and floodlights for the main pitch and training fields may be erected. A new office is on the drawing board and council approval has been granted.

With a major new sponsor in local company, Dickinson Developments and the Youth League sides assisted by Andary Petroleum Group, the future for the Tigers looks bright indeed - maybe to the stage where we may soon be watching in regular action against their illustrious rivals, the Macarthur Rams.

THE ST GEORGE SAINTS ALL BUT BOOKED A FINALS berth with a hard-fought 2-0 win over the Canterbury Marrickville Berries at Henson Park. A good crowd for the Easter Sunday battle saw two evenly-matched teams, until late strikes from Saints strikers Manuel Papageorgiou and Jimmy Bakis sealed the three points for the visitors.

There was very little between the sides, although the Saints edged the game in the second period after Canterbury were forced into a reshuffle at half time, the injured Scott Wells and Aheleas Kotsopoulos being replaced by Angelo Markopoulos and Matthew Percy.

Robert Bustos was the first player to try his luck on goal, the new Berries midfielder seeing his effort spectacularly saved by St George goalkeeper Les Bihari. Bustos, who has proved a real hit with the Berries fans, showed some sublime skill early but unfortunately soon faded from the game. St George's first effort came on 24 minutes, when Papageorgiou, who had scored twice in his previous two games, crossed well after beating two players, but strike partner Bakis could only clip the ball over the bar on the volley.

Canterbury enjoyed slightly the better of the play in the first period, with Simon Fedele enjoying a fine game, and Jimmy Nikas looking sharper than for some time. Nikas and Steve Christoforidis, who when on form and fit are as good a combination in Super league, always threatened but were well marshaled by the St George defence.

Berries goalkeeper Frank Mikuletic got his angles right against Max Sevares on 28 minutes, and from a similar angle ten minutes later Angelo Petratos saw an effort cleared off the line. Petratos must have covered every blade of grass at Henson Park, popping up all over the field in the most unlikely of places.

A minute after Petratos' effort Jose Mendes embarked on a magnificent run, beating a number of players before smashing a shot that Bihari caught. Bihari had little option though, as the ball was smashed straight at him.

On the stroke of half time Elias Augerinos screwed a shot wide on his right foot when well placed, and one felt he would have preferred the ball on his left foot. Wells had been struggling after taking a knock for the Berries, and it was no surprise to see him not take his place after the re-start.

Thirteen minutes into the second period Petratos saw an effort well saved by Mikuletic when he could have done better, but on 70 minutes came the turning point in the game.

There was never going to be much in this clash, so when Bihari did superbly well to block a Christoforidis effort from close range one felt there would be few better chances. Five minutes later Papageorgiou punished the Berries with a fine finish. When the ball broke to the Saints number 16 he raced to the edge of the penalty area before finishing expertly past Mikuletic.

Coach John Sentas said after the game that Papageorgiou has had problems with his finishing in the past, but at present the striker can do no wrong in front of goal.

Five minutes later Mikuletic saved well from an Augerinos bullet, the left-sided midfielder again having to use his right foot but this time his effort was a beauty. With time running out Papageorgiou played the ball to the dangerous Bakis on the edge of the penalty area, and he turned beautifully before finishing with the outside of his right boot to seal the win for his team.

Canterbury Marrickville showed good discipline and were full of running, and were unlucky in a game that always looked like would be decided by the odd goal. They failed to take their limited chances - St George took theirs. As well as the two strikers for the Berries Simon Fedele was outstanding, while Jose Mendes performed to his usual high standard.

New recruit Abbas Saad struggled to make an impact, while Robert Bustos faded after a bright start.

For St George Bihari kept them in the game with his late save, and also looked as solid as ever, while Sentas said that George Maglis was his team's best. Maglis had a fine game but my Man of the Match went to Simon Verrender, who has got himself in the team and has been consistent ever since. Alongside someone with the skill of Michael Kladis most players look awkward, but Verrender did a fine job against some good opposition. Bakis and Papageorgiou probably saw less of the ball than the Berries strikers, but when their chances came they took them expertly.

Berries Coach Jim Patikas wasn't impressed with the game, and felt that his team had been OK in the first half but that the second period was a non-event. Forced into making changes at halftime hadn't helped him, and he felt that it was always going to be a one goal game. Quite simply his side hadn't got the goal, the opposition had.

St George Coach John Sentas felt the Saints had been generally the better side, but that his back three had been particularly outstanding.

"That's our best performance this season when we have got the points," said Sentas. 'We were good against Bonnyrigg but finished with nothing, here we got the points."

In the end a second half which saw the Saints lift a gear, plus finishing the limited chances in the game sees St George move equal on points with Blacktown and Bonnyrigg (before the Anzac Day games) and the Berries struggling to make the top five.

It gets no easier for the Berries this week, as they travel to Bonnyrigg, while St George also have a tough clash against the Parramatta Eagles. It's getting to the stage of the season where performances count for little, especially for Canterbury Marrickville who will play worse than this and win.

As for St George, with a solid defence and strikers who can do no wrong at the moment, everything's looking good. Surely now the finals beckon?

Summary: In the first half, St George attacked from the left side, with Bakis finding the ball at his feet in the 10th minute where he chipped the 'keeper, the ball hit the post and Papageorgiou had no problem scoring the first. At the 28th minute, a throw-in from the right found the ball to Petrovski who was five metres outside the box from where he shot an unstoppable goal for St George's second. At the 32nd minute, Augerinos cut the ball from the left and crossed it in and Papageorgiou was brought down by a Penrith Defender. The referee awarded a penalty to St George with Bakis scoring from the spot. In a rare attack by Penrith, Bihari ended up with the ball only to have an indirect free kick awarded against him for overstepping. The result shot by Ackerly was blocked by the St George defence. Martin Driene had another shot at goal, but it hit the top post.

IN the second half, Bakis hit the ball wide in the 51st minute. Penrith almost had a chance at the 67th minute, with Bihari hurrying back to the spot to save a corner for Penrith. Another goalbound shot for St George (off Bakis after a Sevares run) was cleared off the line by Bob Casserly.
Report from St George.

Leichhardt Tigers v Fairfield Bulls

Summary: The Leichhardt Tigers pulled one out of the fire on Good Friday, to clinch a vital 3-2 win over the Fairfield Bulls at Lambert Park.

The Bulls dominated proceedings throughout the first half and were unlucky not to have made an impression on the score board by half time. Fortunately for them though, the Bulls' striking duo of Hoenselaars and Borg continued to baffle the Tigers' defence early in the second half and each managed to put a goal away in the space of two minutes to put Fairfield well in control of the match.

After being down 2-0 with just half an hour of play remaining, the Tigers somehow managed to come back from the dead - much to the delight of their very vocal supporters. The first of their goals came in the 64th minute, after Joe Bruni cut in from the left flank and fired in a powerful shot that Bulls custodian Dragon Pupovac could only manage to parry. Vuko Tomasevic was on hand to head home the ball into an open net.

Second half substitute Josh Bulgin then got in behind his marker to delightfully stretch out and head home his first touch of the match thanks to a cross from Chris Lansdown to tie the scores at 2-2. Then, in the last minute of regulation time, Damien Luksic hand-balled in the box to give Steve Karavatakis the opportunity to ensure a Leichhardt victory. He made no mistake, putting the ball low and to the right of Pupovac for a memorable Leichhardt victory.

Super Soccer rating:

The Coasties and Bankstown had the honour of playing the first ever soccer match at North Power Stadium, Gosford, and even though the match ended in a 0-0 draw, the 5,500 fans present witnessed a hard fought, entertaining match.

Both teams obviously were going all out for the three points to consolidate their chances of making the Top Five, but unfortunately the goals were hard to come by.

Straight from the kick off, the Coasties attacked and Nathan Byrn picked up a loose ball and forced Zlatko Joseski to make a fine save close to the goal post. Peter Ritchie made a great run from halfway down the right hand side but his dangerous-looking shot was easily taken by the Bankstown 'keeper. Stuart Sontag received the ball from a corner kick but his dangerous looking shot from the edge of the penalty area was deflected away from goal.

Bankstown were awarded a free kick on the edge of the penalty area, and Richard Luksic's shot was cleared off the line by Shaun Matthews. All this happened in the first nine minutes!

Byrn received the ball after a good Coasties move, but with only Joseski to beat, shot straight at him. Nabil Codmani then had a 20 metre drive well-saved by Gary Meier - and so it went on until half time: plenty of action, but no goals!

The first ten minutes after the break was all Coasties, with Byrn, Ritchie and Cal Roper going close but not close enough.

Up the other end, Codmani, Luksic and Bryan Raeburn all went close but still no goals.

Both coaches made three substitutions in the last twenty minutes. The fast-paced action continued, but at the final whistle it was still a goal-less stalemate which was probably a fair result, leaving each side still in contention for a coveted final five spot. Report from Central Coast.

Blacktown City v Manly Warringah

Gabbie Stadium, Saturday 22 April received the ball and send in a cross to the far post. Jason Bennett dragged the Manly defence to the near post leaving Hagger free on the far post to stroke the ball into the net for his 17th goal of the season and set the Demons up for a well-deserved win.

They notched their second in the 72nd minute after a mistake from Steve Hickman at the heart of the Dolphins' defence allowed Zlatko Donev to calmly pick his spot, recording his first goal for his new club.

Manly's striker, Mark Beldham, was rewarded for his fine display in the 81st minute when his well-hit cross rebounded off the feet of Blacktown's Paul Dee and into the net.

Best for Blacktown: Langan, Brown, Bennett
Best for Manly Warringah: Beldham, Hickman, McCreath

Round 17 preview

by Mark Fowler

Round 17 is shaping up to be another interesting set of matches in this unpredictable Super League season.

Written before the games on ANZAC Day, the current top five are starting to look settled, and it will take something special from any of the chasers to knock out the existing teams.

Bonnyrigg, Blacktown, St George, Leichhardt and St George have done enough this season so far to warrant their positions, and it would be a shock if any of them were to miss out now.

Saturday night sees two games, and the home teams will be unhappy with anything less than three points.

Kicking off first is the Central Coast Coasties and Manly Warringah Dolphins at Pluim Park. After their North Power Stadium adventure last week the Coasties will look to make it two out of two at their Lisarow base, but they'll come up against a team that has pushed both Parramatta and Blacktown in the last two weeks. The Dolphins have had huge injury problems with the likes of Andre Glucina and Martin Ranaldi being on the sidelines, and have also released David Turnbull and Keith Long.

Although the Coasties are still missing skipper Peter Preston one new name to keep an eye on is youngster Cal Roper, who has looked a Super League player all over since joining the first team. A season in the Under 18's and one in the Under 21's has helped this 18 year-old striker, and the kid with the pony-tail may find himself being watched more closely from now on.

Also on Saturday Bonnyrigg play Canterbury at the Serbian Centre looking to avenge a 5-2 drubbing at the hands of the Berries at Henson Park earlier this season. Bonnyrigg were less than impressive against Macarthur last Saturday, while Canterbury really needs all three points here. They suffered an injury last week to Scott Wells, and have also released the experienced Zoran Ilic as well as seeing Rudi Nasser join Dulwich Hill in Division One.

It's Sunday afternoon for the remaining five games, with Super Soccer making the journey to watch Eastern Suburbs play the Fairfield Bulls at Wentworth Park.

Both teams are in similar positions and like Canterbury know nothing less than a win will suffice. Eastern Suburbs will be hoping they suffered no injuries on Tuesday when they entertained Bonnyrigg at St George Stadium, while Fairfield know that they can't afford to throw away two goal leads like they did at Leichhardt on Good Friday. When these teams met in round 4 it ended up 2-0 to the Bulls, a result that made it four losses out of four for the Wanderers. Its full credit to the likeable John Calleja that they have bounced back well.

Talking of the Tigers, they entertain a Macarthur side that performed well against Bonnyrigg, and drew 1-1 with their hosts in round 4, while St George host the Parramatta Eagles in a top five clash. Its three wins out of three for St George in a week, while Parramatta remains unbeaten since their 6-1 debacle at Bonnyrigg. They have dropped points though recently against teams they would expect to beat. The Saints strikers are on fire, and they will be happy they are picking up points without their injured skipper Mark Brennan.

Bankstown will be hoping they can end their Jensen Park hoodoo with a victory over Sutherland, while the Sharks will be hoping to overturn a 4-0 loss by their opponents at Seymour Shaw. It's an amazing five wins for the Lions on the road, but remarkably none at home yet. Sutherland will be hoping they don't become the first.

Penrith host Blacktown knowing they were hammered 5-0 when the teams last met, although the Panthers have shown some improvement of late.

The Demons have strengthened a squad that was high on quality but light on numbers with the signings of Zlatko Donev and Jason Connolly, and both players will be needed in the run-in to the end of the season. Defender Matty Lowe is expected to be missing for another 6 weeks, and coach Brian Brown will look to nurse the likes of Paul Yates and Peter Sermanni through some niggling injuries. The Panthers field a similar side to the one that won the Division One Grand Final last year, although work commitments have seen them without striker Richard Astone, leaving a heavy burden on the shoulders of Danny Hinton.

Fouls: 6

Super Soccer Rating: 3

Summary: The top of the table clash confirmed that Northern NSW are favourites for the women's super league title with a resounding 4-0 victory over a hapless NSWITC. Northern NSW totally dominated on all areas of the paddock and a smart passing game along with good positional play allowed them to continue to be unbeaten this season. The half time score of 1-0 was increased just after the break when NSWITC sweeper Michelle McLaughlin committed a foul inside the penalty area to allow Amber Neilson to slot home a penalty for a 2-0 lead.

Then 'Super Sub' Rose Dunne was brought on and 2 goals in 5 minutes made sure that the home side were out to an unassailable 4-0 lead. Soon after the second half goal rush NSWITC sweeper Michelle McLaughlin committed another foul just outside the penalty area and was booked accordingly, McLaughlin was then given a second yellow card for the ensuing backchat which left the NSWITC down to 10 players for the duration of the match.

Special mention must be made to Northern NSW defender Joanne Powell in that was a strong match and Sandra Stavrou had good game in a well beaten side for the visitors. Report by Marc Barnett for Super Soccer.

Blacktown: Van Arkkels, Siebel, Laria, Loke, Pisani, Carruthers, Osaghe, Mattheson-Douglass, Abou Mahmoud Ada, Hartshortn, Vanega, Byrne, Paneccasio, Arcuri, Ilijasevic

Corners: 7
Free kicks: 6
Cautions: -

Super Soccer rating: 4.5

Summary: A highly entertaining game played in good spirit. Manly opened the scoring after a typically accurate cross from Ryan Roff headed home by Ben Jenke. Manly were on top for most of the game with Blacktown getting on top clearly in the last 10 minutes or so. Best for Manly - Vozzo, Carrassi, Gale, Frost, Pichon and Jenke. For Blacktown - Pisani and Byrne stood out.

What happened in Round 8?

While Rockdale City Suns make play in front, winning their sixth game, there has been turmoil at other clubs.

Hot on the heels of Tony Dunn's resignation at Fraser Park came news that Eddie Briscoe had quit Stanmore Hawks and there had already been a coaching change at Bathurst where Paul Waine recently took over the reins.

Briscoe was quickly snapped up by Dulwich Hill as a player and made his debut at Bathurst where he helped his new side claim a point to maintain their unbeaten status. The former Derby County player had been at Stanmore for several seasons and took his side to the Grand Final, but the year did not begin well for his side and he advised the committee of his decision at a meeting last Tuesday night.

Bathurst led in their game with a Matthew Lorimer goal only for another newcomer, former Sutherland and Rockdale player Malcolm Bideau, to snare the winner with a close range finish near the end of a tight contest in the central west.

Stanmore, meanwhile, recorded an overdue win over Illawarra Lions at Arlington Oval, going ahead early through a Theo Katsaros penalty and extending their lead with a fine strike from Tyrone Lara.

The Lions managed to pull one back later in the game, through Mohseni, but could not deliver an equaliser, so stand-in coach Ross Anton enjoyed success on his debut for the club.

Unbeaten MSC Liverpool continued to show their strength with a 2-1 win over Hajduk Wanderers in an action packed match at Hammondville Oval which was scoreless until the visitors lost Trent Worrall to a red card midway through the second period.

Then, after MSC scored twice inside eight minutes, the game was virtually over and it needed a later penalty, put away at the second attempt by Jay Anderson, to give Hajduk a respectable result at the finish. It was a game punctuated by a series of goal line clearances at both ends until the deadlock was finally broken in the 78th minute. Up to that point the game could have gone either way, but one sensed that if Hajduk could not score with eleven men they were unlikely to do so with ten and from that moment MSC Liverpool took control.

Leaders Rockdale went on their merry way with another solid 3-0 win, this time at home to Hurstville City Minotaurs in a derby at Rockdale Soccer Centre. Barely had the names been read out from the team sheet than Spase Najdoski had given the home side the lead, with a typically polished finish after waltzing past two defenders and sending a left footer inside the left post. Fifteen minutes later it was two as John Manalopoulos got to the ball first when a shot had not been cleared by the defence and he tucked the ball just inside the right hand upright. Najdoski made it 3-0 in the 44th minute when he curled a free kick from the left of the area around the wall to bring up his ninth goal of the season and scoot clear of the pack.

At Niveveh Field on Sunday, in front of a healthy crowd, Auburn continued their march towards the top end of the table with a hard fought 3-2 victory over Ryde City - a side that is desperately unlucky at the moment.

After seven games, the Gunners have surprisingly not posted their first win, however, it is not so much the superiority of the opposition that has beaten them lately. Indeed, the inexperience of some very promising young players has left a very hard working John McKie with a huge dilemma - "what do we have to do to not beat ourselves each week...?".

Take nothing away from Auburn. It was definitely a class win from a very well drilled side who almost found their nemesis in the hard working Gunners.

Due to holidays and family commitments over the Easter period, Bathurst were without defender Glenn Wallace and regular goal keeper Blake Shallier. Like Ryde they have been playing without luck over recent weeks and were looking to turn this around against Dulwich Hill .

The first half was a fairly mundane affair with the only highlight being the emergence of Eddie Briscoe who came on for the injured Rudi Nasser towards the end of the period, which was scoreless. The second half was just the opposite with Bathurst determined to put in a full 90 minutes, almost getting themselves on the scoresheet in the opening minutes through new boy Lyndsay Jobsen.

The tackling soon became more aggressive and referee Robert Kofler found himself issuing the first yellow card in the match to Shane West in the 52nd minute for a late tackle just outside the box. The resultant Dulwich free kick, by Modar Sultan, was just wide of the mark. This was followed by the only other yellow card to George Kalogeras for a foul on Scott Mutton in the 63rd minute. Dulwich Hill really put the pressure on at this point and Modar Sultan brought out a great save from reserve keeper Steve Drynan .

Fraser Park snatched a late equaliser after a superb solo run down the left by new recruit Neil Coggin who beat the keeper all ends up and also nearly grabbed a winner moments later, in a game which A C United had led from a 13th minute strike by Jim Melissourgos until the dying stages.

Division One 2000

What can we expect in Round 9?

AFTER EIGHT OF THE TEAMS HAVE BEEN engaged in Anzac Day games, it is down to action once more at the weekend with six more Sunday matches.

DULWICH HILL won't be able to relax for after returning from the South Coast and a game at Illawarra they face the very enthusiastic RYDE CITY GUNNERS at Arlington Oval where the action is sure to be fast and furious.

Two bits of good news for the Gunners is that their new surface at Magdala Field will be ready on the 28th of May and the Ryde management are expecting a bumper local crowd to support the event while last Sunday also saw the reappearance of the popular and talented Andy Stratford, back with the club after almost two years overseas.

HAJDUK WANDERERS must put the narrow loss at Hammondville Park behind them when they lock horns with BATHURST at Hajduk Stadium in a game which they must win to get back on track again.

This Hajduk side is a good one and once its new look partnership up front clicks it could come good with a vengeance. Bathurst have not made the best of starts to the season and are now coached again by Paul Waine whose local knowledge will serve them well. They will prove formidable opponents.

ILLAWARRA LIONS, whose defence must take most of the credit for their securing points in recent matches could not have asked for a tougher couple of games to follow their outing at Stanmore last weekend, with the visit of Dulwich Hill on Anzac Day and now MSC LIVERPOOL, probably the hardest side to beat in this season's competition.

The Liverpool lads are still preening themselves after taking all three points from Hajduk at the weekend and had a chance to add more points to their unbeaten tally at Stanmore on Tuesday.

The somewhat underachieving A C UNITED is free of midweek commitments and after the shock of conceding a last minute equaliser in their latest low scoring draw this term at Fraser Park must find something extra to go on and beat visitors STANMORE HAWKS this week.

Stanmore are now under the care of Ross Anton pending the appointment of a permanent coach in the next two weeks.

A C are a class act and with Jim Melissourgos in their side they should be too good for the Hawks who won their first match last week and had to play on Tuesday as well in the tough game with MSC Liverpool. It won't be at all easy for them here and while a win is not beyond them a draw would probably delight them.

These two out of town clubs are struggling a little this season to regain former heights but give the impression that another win is right around the corner. Which of them secures it, if either, will be watched with considerable interest by rival clubs.

FRASER PARK would have been hoping to return to the winners' list on Tuesday against Bathurst and are at ROCKDALE SUNS who are in peak form right now.

Sweeper Blago Kuleski is away for a month overseas and his replacement, the youthful Kire Josevski, the former Bankstown youngster has stepped in and is filling his boots admirably.

Rockdale fans will be looking for their side to establish a 3-0 lead by half time once more, a habit the team has adopted in recent matches and would no doubt like to continue.

Fraser pay their first visit to Rockdale but their coach Gerry Gomez is a familiar face, having played and coached at the Suns in recent seasons. He will be looking to become the first coach to pick up any points on the Banksia ground and there is a reasonable chance that he can, though it is more likely that he will have to be satisfied with one this year. Fraser have lost up to half a dozen players in recent weeks but travel to Rockdale with their latest signing Keegan Pillay already starring in the team after moving from Rockdale last week. He would like nothing better than to score and help his new side to an upset win on the ground he once called home.

HURSTVILLE CITY are at home to AUBURN UNITED which is always a good clash between two clubs which are keen to gain a place in the upper strata and takes on the nature of a derby affair.

Hurstville are a very hard side to beat at Hurstville Oval and their midweek game at Hajduk Stadium is probably the only thing that would mitigate against a win over their old rivals. Auburn are beginning to really hit their straps now so expect some fireworks.

SECOND DIVISION 2000

by Paul Goodwin

The action in Round 6

A most disappointing White City played a three all draw against a very determined Mt Druitt side in the Saturday clash at Chisholm Park. It was a game which White City was determined to win but their players did not perform to the standard expected by their supporters, according to club officials.

It began brightly enough for the home side when Dragan Mihajlovic put away a penalty in the first half. Mount Druitt then raced to a 2-1 lead with goals from Hartge and Graham Bonnano, but Danny Poljak and Vladan Radic, the latter with a cracking volley, restored the locals' lead until Paul Graham weighed in with his customary goal to earn his Mt Druitt side a point and bring a relieved smile to the face of Town Rangers' coach Gary Askew.

Hurstville ZSC gave lie to their recent lack of scoring prowess with a polished display on Hurstville Oval against Mount Pritchard.After 18 minutes Tony Mihaljevic had them in front from a near post finish and by the half hour Robert Babaic had put away a penalty after being brought down in the box. After a nice one touch Tom Prusac made it 3-0 in the 72nd after facing the keeper to relieve his side's anxiety after some recent games which have failed to produce enough goals. Mounties tried hard to get into the game but unsuccessful efforts by Fabian Neves, after a Frank Serratore run in the 62nd and Glen Lowe in the 89th with a header which was just over the bar summed up their afternoon.

Greystanes remain the form side of Second Division following their 4-0 win at Sydney University's St Paul's College.

Belmore returned to Blick Oval to post a 6-1 win at expense of the unfortunate Sydney District, with a brace of goals from both Alite Mahmoud and John Christou and another from George Ganiatsas and a Jim Alipheris effort which was turned in by a District defender.

Central Coast Lakers did well to win 2-0 over University of NSW which have looked quite strong at times this season. For the Lakers it was their second win in a row and their first at headquarters. Their season has been a little tardy in taking off, largely due to playing so many early season games away from home, but they now appear well on track with some younger players boosting their ranks in recent weeks.

Hills United celebrated another win, their third so far, a creditable 2-0 win over free scoring Hakoah at Fred Caterson Reserve.

And in Round 9?

The week begins with Hills United hosting Hurstville ZSC on Thursday night at Fred Caterson Reserve in a game which should give both camps an idea of their relative strengths.

Hills then travel to Greystanes for what could be the second of their two toughest games of the season to face an unbeaten local side now revelling in the atmosphere at Bathurst Street Park with 24 goals under their belt already this term, with only three conceded.

The arrival of Stuart Neilson has been a major factor, with the one time West Wanderers' player claiming 8 goals so far.

Greystanes beat Sydney Uni comfortably last weekend and the students must now travel to Popondetta Park to face the attractive Mount Druitt outfit which will test them fully.

Mount Pritchard, by contrast, also back on their Cook Park home turf, tackle near neighbours White City whose defence seems to be its achilles heel right now. Mounties are playing well without much success and it may well arrive here in a game which is bound to be keenly contested.

Sydney District are struggling to find their rhythm and the visit of Hurstville will allow them to play football and maybe regain some of their touch, but winning may be another matter at Flockhart Park, their new ground in Croydon Park.

Belmore are doing pretty w ell this term with several new players bolstering the ranks. Despite some missing with injuries they won their latest game easily enough and it looks as if this team will figure prominently in the play-offs if they keep up this momentum.

Uni of NSW meet Hakoah in the Eastern Suburbs derby at David Phillips Field with much at stake.
Both sides are coming off losses away from home, with the more adventurous Hakoah slumping to a couple of defeats lately which have taken some of their confidence away.

It looks another good weekend for the supporters in this division.

Two goals by midfielder D Grozdanovski gave the Bankstown City Lions all three points against their opponents from the Central Coast on Saturday morning.

The Coasties had no answer to a strong performance by Bankstown, who showed enough flair in attack to score three times and also enough resolve in defence to keep their visitors scoreless.

Grozdanovski's first goal came mid-way through the first half. A cross from the right hand side saw the Lions talented number 8 judge the high ball to perfection, and he put his header past the Coasties goalkeeper M Baldridge. It was a finish any player would have been proud of.

Fourteen minutes later the same player made it 2-0, this time scoring at the near post after a good build-up. Baldridge managed to get a hand on Grozdanovski's shot but had little chance of keeping it out of the net.

The Lions, who have conceded just eight goals in eight games looked solid at the back all game. Little got through their back-line, and what did was swept up by sweeper S Karaas. S Tascevski had a fine game in defence, while Grozdanovski's runs from midfield were seldom picked up.

The third goal came late in the second half, and was scored by W Schizas. A free kick wasn't held by Baldridge, and Bankstown substitute A Dako did well not only to get to the loose ball, but also to unselfishly set up Schizas, who did the rest.

The Coasties were well served by midfielder C Koelma, who showed some neat touches, as did substitute M Irwin, who looked a good player in the limited time he was on the field. The number 2 J Eggleton also looked a good footballer - although he has a rather famous name to follow in Central Coast soccer!

The Coasties won't be disheartened after a loss to a better team, especially as they never threw the towel in and kept going to the end. Their opponents had just a little bit too much skill, and were also better at clearing their lines than the Coasties, who were penned back for long periods of the game.

The win sees the Lions firmly entrenched in fifth place, while the Central Coast are in 13th with seven points from seven games. The Coasties travel back to Sydney this weekend when they play Bonnyrigg, while the Lions make the trip to Penrith looking to maintain their push for the finals.

Editorial

Since the announcement of the new Summer League a few weeks back, we have had many inquiries about the future shape of both the summer and winter competitions.

Many of the issues about which people have inquired have yet to be finalised by the Board of Directors of the NSW Soccer Federation, so we are not in a position to inform you of much at this stage.

The Board announced that the Summer League is to comprise ten teams initially with both an Under 19 and first grade competition. The ten clubs to participate in the inaugural Summer League are:

* Belconnen (ACT)
* Blacktown City
* Bonnyrigg White Eagles
* Canterbury Marrickville Olympic
* Central Coast Coasties
* Leichhardt Tigers
* Parramatta Eagles
* Penrith Panthers
* St George
* Sutherland Sharks.

The Summer League is expected to kick-off some time in late October/early November and continue through the summer season into 2001.

An important question for many people is the make-up of the 'premier' competition in winter. While this is not decided, it can be anticipated that those clubs currently playing in Super League who are not in Summer League will be invited to play in a new-look winter competition, along with some existing Division 1 clubs.

There were two clubs currently playing in the Super League competition which opted not to be considered for Summer League - Macarthur Rams and Eastern Suburbs.

We will keep you informed of developments in relation to these issues as they are known.

If, in the meantime, you have views you wish to express on these issues, please do not hesitate to do so to any of the Board. It is useful to hear from individual players and supporters, in addition to the clubs.

Football is YOUR game - enjoy it!
